Jim,
Got your message. Where to go ? Somewhere in mid town or plaza or brookside.

See tony's post from an hour ago. You know he is now into Deb Hermann so that probably where he is getting this stuff. I have not except for deb heard anything on wayne lately , have you ?

BLOG POST

The City Council is tired of City Manager Wayne Cauthen.

He has two . . . Maybe three people who don't care if the stays . . . But the rest of them want him gone from what I hear. That includes the vast majority of Council People from the Eastside.

The logic: If they get rid of him, they absolve themselves of a lot of the guilt for extending his contract to such an extravagant degree in the first place.

To wit, they're prepared to play hardball after the budget battle is taken care of . . .

RUMOR HAS IT THEY'LL OFFER CAUTHEN A PARTIAL SETTLEMENT ON THE REMAINDER OF HIS SALARY AND MAKE HIM SUE THEM FOR THE REST!!!

Once gain, Mayor Funky has been cut out of this decision and the impetus for this move isn't coming from his office . . . Notice, that there has not been a press conference which is the only trick the Co-Mayor has left. If anything, if Mayor Funky does get involved he may encourage a few random, not-very-well connected protests from the African-American Community.

But I doubt it . . .

The support for Cauthen was never about his job but more of a "screw you" to Mayor Funky and his "Black part of town" and Mammygate mess.

So, the City Council is getting ready to give Cauthen the axe and it looks like it may not be as messy, sloppy or incompetent as Mayor Funky's first attempt.

And all of this is almost as interesting as the Real World's Jamie Chung in Maxim, but not really.

Developing . . .
