Bill in Hospital
Hi everyone,

I got a call from Sandy (Bill's better half) this morning and she said that Bill went to the emergency room Saturday evening with a bowel obstruction. Bill called me not too long ago to say that a test that was run this morning showed that things were improving and there are hopes that he'll be released from the hospital sometime tomorrow.

Sandy said any well wishes can be sent to their home email account (sanjosk@kc.rr.com.) He is in Room 853 at North Kansas City Hospital. Thanks, Jackie
